

BOOK LAUNCH

Sunday 2nd December 2012

2.00pm to 4.00pm

At the West Coast Gallery

50 Seaview Road

PIHA

"If you wish to know the story of Piha, when Piha was golden and special; when it was a vigorous day-trip from Auckland over a seemly unending gravel road that spewed dust; when surfing meant shooting waves unaided with naught but a lilo; when camping was camping and frozen food a vision; when it was possible to be the only footprint in the sand. If all this matters, Mary Woodward has written just the book for you."

Murray Gray, Going West book shop

THE PIHA STORY

MARY D. WOODWARD

RRP $27.50